

Student Authors/Presenters Travel Grant Application

Submit immediately to appropriate address on second page. Be sure to include W8 or W9 forms.

You may qualify for a Student Travel Grant to defray some of your costs for presenting a paper at one of the following 2002 - 2003 conferences: ICC, GLOBECOM, INFOCOM, WCNC, NOMS or IM. IEEE Communications Society will award a limited number of Student Travel Grants to full-time engineering students. This grant is US$1000 plus a complimentary copy of the record. To qualify you must:

Be a valid student member of IEEE Communications Society at the time of application

To qualify for a Student Travel Grant you must (see exception marked with an asterisk below) reside in a Region other than the one in which the Conference is held:

- If the Conference takes place in North America (IEEE Regions 1-7), you must live in IEEE Regions 8, 9, or 10 to qualify.
- If the Conference is in Europe, Africa or Middle East (IEEE Region 8), then students residing outside Region 8 may apply.
- If the Conference in Latin America (IEEE Region 9), then students residing outside IEEE Region 9 will be able to apply.
- If the Conference is in the Asia-Pacific (IEEE Region 10), then students outside IEEE Region 10 may apply.

* Students, who live in the same major area as the conference, are also eligible for travel grants, but only under exceptional circumstances and under very restricted conditions. This grant is US$600 plus a complimentary copy of the record. To be considered please contact your regional representative
